New Delhi, the 7th May 1960

G.S.R. 531.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 12 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 (60 of 1952), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

The Central Commissions of Inquiry (Procedure) Rules, 1960.

1. Short title and application.—(1) These rules may be called the Central Commissions of Inquiry (Procedure) Rules, 1960.

(2) They shall apply to Commissions of Inquiry appointed by the Central Government.

2. Notice to persons for giving evidence.—(1) The Commission shall, as soon as may be after its appointment,—

(a) issue a notice to every person, who in its opinion should be given an opportunity of being heard in the inquiry, to furnish to the Commission a statement relating to such matters as may be specified in the notice;

(b) issue a notification to be published in such manner as it may deem fit, inviting all persons acquainted with the subject-matter of the inquiry to furnish to the Commission a statement relating to such matters as may be specified in the notification.

(2) Every statement furnished under sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied by an affidavit in support of the facts set out in the statement sworn by the person furnishing the statement.

(3) Every person furnishing a statement under sub-rule (1) shall also furnish to the Commission along with the statement a list of the documents, if any, on which he proposes to rely and forward to the Commission, wherever practicable, the originals or true copies of such of the documents as may be in his possession or power and shall state the name and address of the person from whom the remaining documents may be obtained.

3. Recording of evidence.—(1) The Commission shall examine all the statements furnished to it under rule 2 and if, after such examination, the Commission considers it necessary to record evidence, it shall first record the evidence, if any, produced by the Central Government and may thereafter record in such order as it may deem fit,—

(a) the evidence of any person who has furnished a statement under Rule 2 and whose evidence the Commission, having regard to the statement, considers relevant for the purpose of the inquiry;

(b) the evidence of any other person whose evidence, in the opinion of the Commission, is relevant to the inquiry.

(2) If, after all the evidence is recorded under sub-rule (1), the Central Government applies to the Commission to recall any witness already examined or to examine any new witness, the Commission shall, if satisfied that it is necessary for the proper determination of any relevant fact so to do, recall such witness or examine such new witness.

4. Persons likely to be prejudicially affected to be heard.—If, at any stage of the inquiry, the Commission,—

(a) considers it necessary to inquire into the conduct of any person; or

(b) is of the opinion that the reputation of any person is likely to be prejudicially affected by the inquiry, the Commission shall give to that person a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the inquiry and to produce evidence in his defence.

5. Right of cross-examination and representation by legal practitioner.—The Central Government, every person referred to in rule 4 and with the permission of the Commission, any other person whose evidence is recorded under rule 3—

- (a) may cross-examine a witness other than a witness produced by it or him;
- (b) may address the court; and
- (c) may be represented before the Commission by a legal practitioner or, with the consent of the Commission, by any other person.

6. Procedure in matters not provided in the rules.—The Commission shall have the power to regulate its own procedure in respect of any matter for which no provision is made in these rules.

CENTRAL BOARD OF REVENUE

New Delhi, the 7th May, 1960

G.S.R. 539.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 202 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, and in supersession of the Custom House Agents Licensing Rules, 1957, published in Part II, Section 3 of the Gazette of India dated the 6th July, 1957, the Chief Customs Authority hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Custom House Agents Licensing Rules, 1960.

(2) They shall come into effect on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify for the purposes of section (1) of Section 202 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878.

2. Definitions.—In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) “Act” means the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878);
- (b) “Customs Collector” shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 3(c) of the Act;
- (c) “Custom House Agent” means a person licensed under these rules to act as agent for the transaction of any business relating to the entrance or clearance of any vessel or the import or export of goods or baggage in any Custom House;
- (d) “Company” means a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956);
- (e) “Form” means a form appended to these rules;
- (f) “Income-tax Clearance certificate” has the meaning assigned to it in the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922);
- (g) “section” means a section of the Act.

3. Licence where not required.—No licence under these rules shall be required by—

- (a) an importer or exporter transacting any business in the Custom House solely on his own account;
- (b) any clerk, servant or agent of any person or mercantile firm transacting business generally on behalf of such person or firm in pursuance of section 203; and
- (c) an agent employed for one or more vessels or shipping lines in order solely to enter or clear vessels for which he is appointed as an agent, for work incidental to his employment as such agent including the clearance of unmanifested excess cargo, unclaimed baggage and the like.

4 Invitation of applications.—The Customs Collector may, as and when he considers necessary, invite, by means of a notice affixed on the notice board of the Custom House, applications for the grant of licences to act as Custom House Agent.

5. Application for Licence.—An application for a licence to act as a Custom House Agent shall be made in Form 'A' and shall contain the name or names and the address or addresses of the person or persons applying; if the applicant is a firm, the name and address of every partner of the firm; and if a company, the registered name and address thereof, the names of the directors, managers and managing agents, and if there is a managing director, the name of such director. If the applicant is a firm or a company, the application shall also specify the name or names of the person or persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of that firm or company, as the case may be.

6. Certain conditions to be fulfilled by the applicant before the grant of licence.—An applicant for a licence shall—

- (a) furnish to the Customs Collector satisfactory evidence as to his respectability, reliability and financial status;
- (b) produce satisfactory evidence to the Customs Collector that he would be in a position to muster sufficient clientele and business in the event of his being granted the licence;
- (c) furnish an income-tax clearance certificate.

7. Scrutiny of application for licence.—On receipt of an application made under rule 5, the Customs Collector may make enquiries for verification of the particulars set out in the application and also such other enquiries as he may deem necessary including enquiries about the respectability, reliability and financial status of the applicant.

8. Number of Licences.—The number of licences to be granted at a Custom House shall be such as the Customs Collector, having regard to the volume of import and export business transacted through that Custom House, may determine from time to time.

9. Examination of applicant.—(1) On being otherwise satisfied as to the fitness of an applicant for holding a licence under these rules, the Customs Collector may arrange for him or, in the case of a company or firm, for the person or persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of the firm or company, as the case may be, to be examined with a view to ascertaining his or their knowledge of customs law and procedure and his or their fitness to render proper service to importers and exporters. The examination may be oral or written or both, and shall be conducted by the Customs Collector or by a Committee of Customs Officers to be appointed by him for the purpose. The examination of those clerks or employees of Custom House Agents who are expected to transact Customs business only in the docks and not in the Custom House may, however, be confined to testing their knowledge of Customs law and procedure only to the extent that it has a bearing on their particular branch of work.

(2) The examination may include questions on the following subjects:—

- (a) arrival, entry and clearance of vessels;
- (b) preparation of various kinds of bills of entry and shipping bills;
- (c) tariff classification and rates of duty;
- (d) determination of value for assessment;
- (e) conversion of currency;
- (f) nature and description of documents to be filed with various kinds of bills of entry and shipping bills;
- (g) procedure for assessment and payment of duty;
- (h) examination of merchandise at the docks;

- (i) provisions of the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act, 1958 (43 of 1958);
- (j) prohibitions on import and export;
- (k) bonding procedure and clearance from bond;
- (l) reimportation and conditions for free re-entry;
- (m) drawback;
- (n) offences under the Act;
- (o) provisions of allied Acts, including the Imports and Exports (Control) Act, 1947 (18 of 1947), Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914 (2 of 1914), Arms Act, 1959 (54 of 1959), Opium Act, 1878 (1 of 1878), Indian Drugs Act, 1940 (23 of 1940), and Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930 (2 of 1930), in so far as they are relevant to the transaction of customs business; and
- (p) procedure in the matter of refund of claims, appeals and revision petitions under the Act.

(3) The Customs Collector shall also satisfy himself whether the applicant, if he is an individual, or in the case of a company or firm, the persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Customs House, on behalf of that company or firm, possess satisfactory knowledge of English and the local language, provided that in the case of persons detailed to work exclusively in the docks satisfactory knowledge of English will not be compulsory. Knowledge of Hindi will be considered as an additional or desirable qualification.

10. Rejection of applications.—(1) The Customs Collector shall reject an application for the grant of a licence to act as Custom House Agent, if—

- (a) the applicant, if he is an individual, fails to pass the examination prescribed under these rules for the grant of a licence; in the case of a firm or company, the persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of that firm or company, as the case may be, fail to pass the examination, prescribed under these rules for the grant of a licence; or
- (b) the number of vacancies existing at the time the application is considered for the grant of a licence do not justify the grant of such licence to the applicant; or
- (c) the applicant is not otherwise considered suitable.

(2) No appeal shall lie from the order of the Customs Collector rejecting an application.

11. Grant of a licence.—Where an application of an applicant is not rejected under rule 10, the Customs Collector shall grant the applicant a licence in Form 'B' on payment of a fee of Rs. 50.

12. Applicant to execute bond and furnish security and surety.—Before granting a licence under these rules, the Customs Collector shall require the applicant to enter into a bond in Form 'C' for the due observance of these rules and the conditions of his licence and also to furnish—

- (a) a security of Rs. 3,000 in cash or an interest bearing security of the like amount, namely, Government promissory notes, National Savings Certificates, Post Office Savings Bank Pass Book or Post Office Cash Certificates; and
- (b) a solvent surety for a sum of Rs. 2,000, who shall execute a bond in Form 'D':

Provided that the amount of security may be increased or decreased by the Customs Collector at any time, should he consider it necessary to do so, having regard to the volume and type of business which the applicant will transact as Custom House Agent.

13. Period of validity of licence.—(1) A licence issued under these rules shall, in the first instance, be valid for a period of one year but may be renewed, on application made in this behalf sufficiently in advance, on the expiry of the said period of one year for a period of three years and thereafter every three years.

(2) The fee for renewal of licence granted under these rules shall be Rs. 50.

14. / AISA A 24.

(3) Before a licence is renewed, the Customs Collector shall satisfy himself about the financial solvency of the applicant and shall require the production of an income-tax clearance certificate.

(4) The Custom Collector may refuse to renew a licence if on such inquiry as he deems fit he finds that the volume of the business transacted by the applicant as Custom House Agent during the period to which that licence relates is less than the minimum prescribed by the Customs Collector in this behalf.

14. Licence not transferable.—Every licence granted or renewed under these rules shall be deemed to have been granted or renewed personally to the licensee and no licence shall be sold or otherwise transferred.

15. Obligations of Custom House Agent.—A Custom House Agent shall—

- (a) furnish, whenever required by the Customs Collector, an authorisation from each of the firms or persons by whom he is, from time to time employed as their Custom House Agent to act as such Custom House Agent;
- (b) transact business in the Custom House either personally or through a clerk or servant duly approved by the Customs Collector;
- (c) not represent a client before Customs Officer in any matter to which he, as officer or employee, gave personal consideration, or as to the facts of which he gained knowledge, while in Government service;
- (d) where he knows that a client has not complied with the law or has made any error in, or omission from, any document, affidavit, or other papers which the law requires such client to execute, advise his client promptly of the fact of such non-compliance, error or omission, and should his client still persist in such non-compliance, error or omission, immediately bring the matter to the notice of the Customs Collector;
- (e) exercise due diligence to ascertain the correctness of any information which he imparts to a client with reference to any Customs business;
- (f) not withhold information relative to any Customs business from a client who is entitled to such information;
- (g) promptly pay over to Government when due all sums received for the payment of any duty, tax, or other debt or obligation owing to the Government, and promptly account to his clients for funds received for them from the Government, or received from them in excess of Governmental or other charges properly payable in respect of the clients' Customs business;
- (h) not procure, or attempt to procure, directly or indirectly, information from Government records or other Government sources of any kind to which access is not granted by proper authority;
- (i) not attempt to influence the conduct of any official of the Custom House in any matter pending before the Custom House, by the use of threat, false accusation, duress, or the offer of any special inducement or promise of advantage, or by the bestowing of any gift or favour or other thing of value;
- (j) not refuse access to, conceal, remove or destroy the whole or any part of any book, paper or other record, relating to his transactions as a Custom House Agent which is being sought, or, which he has reasonable grounds to believe, may be sought by the Custom House;
- (k) maintain accounts in such form and manner as may be directed from time to time by the Customs Collector and submit them for inspection to the Customs Collector or an officer authorised by him;
- (l) ensure that all documents prepared or presented by him or on his behalf are strictly in accordance with orders relating thereto;
- (m) ensure that all documents such as bills of entry and shipping bills delivered in the Custom House by him show the name of the importer or exporter, as the case may be, and the name of the Custom House Agent, prominently at the top of the documents; and
- (n) in the event of the licence granted to him being lost, immediately report the fact to the Customs Collector.

16. Change in directors of company etc.—In the case of a company holding a licence under these rules, any change in the directors, managing director or managing agents as the case may be, shall be forthwith communicated by the company to the Customs Collector.

17. Change in constitution of firm.—In the case of any firm being a licensee, any change in the constitution thereof shall be reported to the Customs Collector within a period of 3 days of the change having taken place. The firm undergoing any such change shall make a fresh application for the grant of licence under rule 5 and such application shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions laid down in rules 6 to 13. The Customs Collector may, however in his discretion, allow the existing firm to carry on business of Custom House Agents till such time as a decision is taken on the fresh application of the firm.

18. Change in personnel actually engaged in Custom House on behalf of firm or company.—In the case of any change in the personnel actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of that firm or company shall be forthwith communicated by the firm or the company, as the case may be, to the Customs Collector, and no new person shall be allowed to work in the Custom House unless he has passed the examination referred to in rule 9.

19. Maintenance and inspection of accounts.—(1) A licensee required to maintain accounts under these rules shall maintain in an orderly and itemised manner the said accounts. The accounts shall be kept current and they shall reflect all financial transactions of the Custom House Agent as such. The licensee shall keep and maintain on file a copy of each of the Customs documents such as bill of entry, shipping bill, transshipment application and the like delivered by him and copies of all his correspondence and other papers relating to his customs business.

(2) All such books and papers shall be kept on file for at least five years and shall be made available at any time for inspection of officers authorised to inspect them under these rules.

20. Loss of Licence—grant of duplicate.—In the event of the licence granted to a Custom House Agent having been lost, a duplicate licence should be granted on application being made in this behalf on payment of a fee of Re. 1.

21. Employment of clerk or servant.—(1) A Custom House Agent may employ a clerk or servant or, having regard to the volume of business transacted by him as Custom House Agent, more than one clerk or servant, to transact business generally at the Custom House on his behalf provided any such clerk or servant has been duly approved by the Customs Collector. In the event of the Custom House Agent authorising any such clerk or servant to sign customs documents on his behalf, the Custom House Agent shall file with the Customs Collector a written authority in this behalf. He shall promptly give notice to the Customs Collector of any change in such authority. The Custom House Agent shall exercise such supervision as will ensure the proper conduct of any such clerk or servant in the transaction of the Custom House business. The Custom House Agent shall be held directly responsible for all the acts or omissions of his employees within the scope of their employment.

(2) An identity card in Form 'E' shall be issued to each clerk, servant or agent of a Custom House Agent approved by the Customs Collector under sub-rule (1). The card shall be carried by such clerk, servant or agent at all times when he transacts work in the Custom House, and such card shall be produced for inspection on demand by an officer of the Custom House.

22. Cancellation of licence—appeal.—(1) The Collector of Customs may, after giving the Custom House Agent a reasonable opportunity of being heard, suspend, or revoke a Custom House Agent's licence for any of the following causes :—

- (i) failure of the Custom House Agent to comply with any of the conditions of the bond executed by him under these rules;
- (ii) failure of the Custom House Agent to comply with any of the provisions of these rules; and
- (iii) misconduct on his part which in the opinion of the Collector of Customs renders him unfit to transact any business in the Custom House;

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), the Collector of Customs may, in appropriate cases where immediate action is considered necessary against a licensee, suspend his licence forthwith pending enquiry under sub-rule (1).

(3) An appeal against every order of suspension or revocation of a licence shall lie to the Chief Customs Authority. Every such appeal shall be made within 90 days of the date of the order of the suspension or revocation. Against the decision of the Chief Customs Authority on such appeal, a second appeal shall lie to the Central Government; such an appeal shall be preferred within 180 days from the date of the order in appeal. The order of the Central Government shall be final.

(4) The security deposit falling due to the Custom House Agent as a result of revocation of the licence as aforesaid shall not become payable until after a year from the date of such revocation.

23. Grant of Licence no right to accommodation.—The grant of a licence under these rules does not confer any right to accommodation in the Custom House.

24. Special provision for existing agents.—(1) In the case of any clearing agent, Dalal Muccadam or broker who immediately before the date of coming into force of these rules was working as an agent for the transaction of business in any Custom House, on behalf of clients generally, the Customs Collector may, notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, grant a special temporary licence to act as a Custom House agent:

Provided that the Customs Collector is satisfied—

- (i) that the application of the provisions of these rules relating to the grant of a licence and in particular rules 9 and 10, will result in undue hardship to any such person; and
- (ii) that any such person is otherwise generally suitable to function as a Custom House agent.

(2) The special temporary licence granted under this rule shall be valid for a period of one year but subject to the provisions of sub-rules (1) and (3), may be renewed from year to year.

(3) No licence shall be granted under this rule after the expiry of five years from the date of coming into force of these rules.

(4) Save as otherwise provided in this rule, the provisions of these rules shall apply in relation to persons granted special temporary licences under this rule as they apply in relation to persons granted licences under rule 11:

Provided that the Chief Customs Authority may, if it is satisfied that a strict application of all or any of those provisions will result in hardship, direct that the said provisions shall apply to any person or class of persons granted licences under this rule subject to such restrictions and modifications as may be specified by it.

MINISTRY OF FOOD & AGRICULTURE

(Department of Food)

New Delhi, the 7th May 1960

G.S.R. 545/Ess.Com./Sugarcane.—In pursuance of sub-clause (1) of clause 3 of the Sugarcane (Control) Order, 1955, the Central Government hereby fixes one rupee and sixty-two naye paise per maund (or four rupees and thirty-four naye paise per quintal) as the minimum price to be paid by a producer of sugar by vacuum pan process or his agent for sugarcane delivered at the gate of the factory or at any purchasing centre connected by road, and one rupee and fifty naye paise per maund (or four rupees and two naye paise per quintal) of sugarcane delivered at any purchasing centre connected by rail, during 1960-61 crushing season:

Provided that—

- (a) a rebate not exceeding one and a half naye paise per maund (or four naye paise per quintal) per mile subject to a maximum of nineteen naye paise per maund (or fifty-one naye paise per quintal) may be deducted out of the said minimum price of one rupee and sixty-two naye paise per maund (or four rupees and thirty-four naye paise per quintal) by a producer of sugar by vacuum pan process in the case of sugarcane transported by such producer by road in his own transport from the purchasing centre to the factory gate. The rebate so deducted shall be subject to a certificate issued by the Central Government or under the directions of the Central Government by the State Government or any officer or authorities of the Central Government or State Government as regards the actual distance of the purchasing centre concerned from the factory and the rate per mile applicable in that case on the basis of which the rebate is charged. For purposes of this concession, a distance of less than half a mile shall be ignored, while a distance from half a mile to one mile shall be counted as a full mile:

Provided further that in cases where a longer distance is involved, the Central Government or under the directions of the Central Government, the State Government or any officer or authorities of the Central Government or State Government, if it considers necessary, may increase the said maximum limit of rebate;

- (b) the Central Government or, under the directions of the Central Government, the State Government or any officer or authorities of the Central Government or State Government, may allow a suitable rebate in the prescribed sugarcane price for any good reason other than that mentioned in proviso (a) above; and
- (c) where the sugarcane is brought bound in bundles and weighed in bundles, the Central Government or under the directions of the Central Government, the State Government or any officer or authorities of the Central Government or State Government may allow a suitable rebate, on account of the weight of the binding material, in the total weight.
